

Sunday. Miss Della Brothers, who has been spending her vacation at her father's, has returned to her work in Boston. Mrs. Lillie Gregory and her father, Henry Leat, spent Monday in Burlington. Mrs. Lillie Gregory and her father, Henry Leat, spent Monday in Burlington. Mrs. Lillie Gregory and her father, Henry Leat, spent Monday in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Lamson went to Springfield, New Haven, Sunday. Miss Mary and Eleanor Lamson have returned from a few days' visit with friends in Shelburne. Miss Julia Wright entertained several of her young friends Tuesday afternoon. It being her seventh birthday. Clark Wood has gone to Essex Center to be the guest of his sister, Mrs. John Thompson, for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hornbush and child from Richmond are guests of his parents for a few weeks.

MILTON BORO.

Miss Lillian Adams of Westford and Russell McCall of Champlain spent Monday night and Tuesday at R. E. Bullock's. Miss Ella Shore has returned to her home in Fairfax after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Mortimer Reynolds, who is ill. Mrs. Jennie Merrick is visiting her brother, Walter Merrick, in Georgia this week. Milton Boro. went to Wilmington Saturday to play baseball. The score was 7 to 8 in favor of Milton.

WEST MILTON.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Blake and family have returned from their home in New York. They have spent two weeks camping. Eleanor Osgood is very ill with heart trouble and pleurisy. Mr. and Mrs. William Parker of Shelburne are spending the week with their son, George Parker. Clayton Galtier of Georgia has been spending the past week with friends in this vicinity.

WEST BOLTON.

G. W. Kellogg has gone to Hardwick, where he has employment. A. E. Cranford has been down for two weeks. Mrs. Melinda Deane of Jericho Center is visiting Mrs. Harriet Hall. Mrs. H. Harriet has recovered from her recent illness. Mrs. F. A. Lath of Jonesville was a guest of Mrs. H. J. Smith Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Verne Tomlinson of Westford and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deane of Jonesville were in town Sunday. Mrs. Butler and daughter, Miss Abbie Butler, of Richmond, were guests of Mrs. E. B. York from Friday until Monday. Mr. Chase of St. Albans is visiting his son, H. T. Chase. Roy Evans and brother, Fred Evans, are at J. H. Smith's. Walter Rhoades of Waterbury is spending the week with his aunt, Mrs. H. Gregory. Road Commissioner H. Muzzey and men are repairing the roads which were badly washed by the heavy rains of Monday.

HINESBURG.

David Sprague, one of the oldest residents of this town, died August 18. The funeral was held at his late home, Thursday, the Rev. C. C. Adams of Burlington officiating. Interment was in Huntington. He leaves two sons, Joseph and Oliver, and two daughters, Mrs. McClellan and Mrs. Hyman Kenyon, all residing in this town. He also has several grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce of Thompsonville, Conn., are visiting at G. W. Pierce's. There will be a social supper at the G. A. R. hall Wednesday, August 25, from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. Miss Eleanor Field has been spending a few days in Huntington the guest of Miss Ellen Russell. William Laughton of Burlington was the guest of his parents over Sunday. The Rev. G. W. Russell is building a cottage at Lake Irons. Mr. Dickson and family of Boston are occupying their cottage. The Rev. S. D. Perry, a former pastor of the Baptist Church in Huntington, officiated at the funeral of David Sprague. The little daughter of Mr. Adams, who lives at Joseph Duane's, is ill with tubercular spinal meningitis. Miss Helen Deane of Burlington was the guest of her aunt, Miss Mary Miles, over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bushnell, Mrs. Anna Kenyon, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Redmond and Miss Martha Moore have been attending campmeeting at Spring Grove.

Mrs. Mercy Kellogg, who has spent the summer at Lucian Postwick's with her brother and sister, has gone to Bristol to visit friends. H. E. Postwick, who also has been at home for a few weeks, has returned to Burlington.

SOUTH BURLINGTON.

The Progressive Agricultural club met Friday evening with C. L. Hartgrove and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danbrook. A large crowd was present. Several new members were admitted. After the business meeting several selections were played by the club orchestra. There were also instrumental music, vocal selections and readings. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson invited the club to spend a day with them at their camp at Cedar Beach. The club voted unanimously to accept the invitation and the day of the visit will be announced later. The grounds were handsomely decorated Friday night with Japanese lanterns which were strung from the house to the trees. Refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

JERICHO CENTER.

The Social Service club will meet this afternoon at the village hall. Mrs. Julia Galsusha Whitcomb, interior decorator for the Goodwin, Limited, firm of Montreal, will give a lecture upon "Color." The club extended a cordial invitation to any wishing to hear Mrs. Whitcomb. Mrs. C. J. Doughty of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. L. H. Barnum. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bicknell and Miss Florence Bicknell are camping at Malletts Falls. Dana Isham, 22 years old, has caught nearly 50 fish since the season opened. The largest measured 14 inches and one was a specimen of the rainbow trout. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fuller have returned from Moretown, where they have been for several weeks. A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harburt gathered at their home Thursday night for a farewell reception before Mr. and Mrs. Harburt leave for their new home in Williston early in September. Miss Florence Rice and Miss Lucy Lang of Chicago, who have been with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bicknell for several weeks, have gone to Manchester for a short stay.

JONESVILLE.

Mrs. C. T. Cutler has returned home after spending two weeks with her sister in Brattleboro. Mrs. Hattie Baker returned to Lincoln Sunday. B. J. Fuller and family were in town Sunday. Mrs. Dana Deering and daughters have returned to South Royalton. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of Waterbury have been visiting at G. W. Palmer's. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Douglas have been spending part of their vacation at Lake George. Mrs. McGarghan, who has been ill, is improving. The Rev. S. P. Perry and family are spending a week at T. L. Stevens'. It is expected Mr. Perry will hold a Sunday evening service at Jonesville. He will preach at Richmond Sunday morning.

UNDERHILL CENTER.

William Marlow of Brockton, Mass., is visiting his father, Francis Marlow. Nicholas Glass has sold his farm to a Burlington purchaser. The funeral of Edward Flynn of Jericho was held at St. Thomas's Church Monday morning. The Rev. Father Thelen officiating. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. John Reynolds of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Reynolds. Mrs. E. E. Smith has returned from a month's visit with relatives in Eden.

COLCHESTER.

Miss Peet of Boston is visiting at Edward White's. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Severeance and children, the Misses Besse and Lillian Wolcott, Miss Day and Messrs. Sandall and Wolcott are in camp at Glen Lodge, Malletts Falls. Mr. J. C. O'Connell of Colchester is visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Day's Sunday. Eugene Burton has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chester Burton. Miss Josephine Anderson is visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. Fowler. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell and son, Howard, of Boston are visiting Mrs. J. M. Collins.

CHARLOTTE.

Mrs. N. C. Bush had a severe shock Tuesday afternoon and is in a serious condition. Mrs. Thomas Adams of Pittsford is visiting her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Guilick. Wallace McNeil has returned from an automobile trip to Boston.

EAST CHARLOTTE.

The town schools will open for the fall term September 6. Mrs. Eugene Bradford is seriously ill. Robert, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thayer, is ill. E. H. Converse is spending several weeks at Charlotte Center, where he was called by the illness of his cousin, Mrs. Mary Alexander. School Director J. S. Williams has been visiting at the residence of Edward Deane, Sr., in doing the work. H. O. VanVleet and Wallace McNeil left August 10 for a week's stay in Boston, making the trip on a motorcycle. Mrs. Fred Davis and Miss Julia Hayes, both of Burlington, who have been visiting Mrs. George Hart, Sr., have returned home. Mrs. L. E. Deane of Burlington has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Malcolm Thayer. Mrs. Charles Day and little son have returned home from spending a week in Lincoln, where they formerly lived. Miss Ethel Horsford took the examination for free tuition in Shelburne Thursday and Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Field and little son, Garland, of Bristol, who have been visiting in the home of Mrs. Daniel Hayes, Mrs. Mott's aunt, returned home Saturday. Miss Anna Hayes accompanied them home for a week's visit with her relatives in Bristol and the vicinity. Mrs. William Eno of New Haven is visiting her brother, Charles Eno, and other relatives in town for a week. Her mother, Mrs. E. E. Eno and Miss Carrie, who came to Charlotte with their mother, have returned home. Roderick Eno and family spent Sunday at Thompson's Point, guests of Mrs. Eno's uncle, G. G. Norton and family. Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Eno, who died at her home in Shelburne Falls Saturday, were held at the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Monday morning. The Rev. Father Henry officiated. The interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Eugene Bradford, who has been ill for several months, was taken to the Fanny Allen hospital Saturday to undergo an operation Monday morning.

WESTFORD.

Miss Harriet Chase of Underhill is visiting at James Sheldon's. Miss Eliza C. Allen is spending the week in Newport. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Rice and daughter are visiting at G. A. Rice's. Miss Meda Rice left for Hinesburg Sunday. The announcement that Miss Eliza C. Allen has been appointed superintendent of a mistake, though the statement was made by Mason S. Stone. John Van Dyke is the superintendent. Miss Gladys LaPoint is visiting Ethel Barroughs.

MILTON.

The funeral of Mrs. Edgar Fletcher, who died at the Mary Fletcher hospital Friday night after an operation, was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wimbles, Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. S. E. Conroy officiated. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery. She leaves a husband and one son, her father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wimbles, three brothers, Floyd, Noel and Allen, and two sisters, Mrs. Eli Phelps of Georgia and Mrs. George Deane of Gary, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Deane's brother, Dr. L. C. Holcomb. They made the trip in their automobile. Charles Patenaude returned Monday to his home in Essex after visiting his sister, Mrs. Alexander Shover. Mrs. Laura Ballard of St. Paul, Minn., is the guest of her son, Fred Ballard. Harold Draper of Windsor was a guest of Edward Ladd over Sunday. Marian Robinson and William Garrow were married Saturday evening by the Rev. E. E. Terrence. Mrs. Rose E. Perry is spending two weeks' vacation at her home in Quechee. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wagner attended a birthday party for his niece, Miss Florence Warner, at North Fairfax Monday evening.

HUNTINGTON CENTER.

Mrs. Cordelia Elliot, about 80 years of age, fell Friday and suffered a bad fracture of her leg. Mr. and Mrs. M. and Mrs. Richard Fielder and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thayer, in Warren. Mr. and Mrs. William Miner, Mrs. W. E. Hanks and son, Leon, went to Thompson's Point Saturday. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Strong and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hiley. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gorton Saturday. Mrs. Stanton Saylor and Miss Eva Baxter of Richmond were guests of Mrs. Ella Brewster Saturday. The Rev. S. P. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Perry and daughters went to visit friends in Richmond Monday for a week. Mr. Perry goes to Fair Haven today to officiate at a funeral. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. gent is visiting in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Laman Hill and niece, Miss Pauline Taylor, are visiting in Horicon and other towns in New York State this week. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brewster and daughter, Hazel, went to Lebanon, N. H. Wednesday to visit her brother, C. L. Brewster. Mrs. Diane Knowles of New Haven and Mrs. Mary Tillings of Burke, N. Y., are visiting at R. A. Norton's and H. J. Ellis'. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Charles were in Burlington Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. H. E. Brewster. Mrs. Maude Dwyer and son, Perm, are visiting relatives in Bristol.

JERICHO.

An entertainment will be given by local talent Friday evening in the Baptist Church under the auspices of the Village Improvement society. Ice cream will be sold in the afternoon and also after the entertainment. The program is as follows: Piano solo, Miss Florence Duxton, solo, P. H. Brown, read ing, Miss Phyllis Brown, solo, Mrs. Max Buxell; male quartet, solo, Mrs. Max Buxell; reading, Miss Phyllis Brown; male quartet, piano solo, Miss Florence Buxton. Mrs. Walter Wardham and daughter of St. Albans are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vert Brigham. Mrs. William Buzzell and two guests returned to their home in Lowell, Mass. The Rev. and Mrs. Neal Wolcott of Morrisville, N. Y., are visiting friends in town. Ice cream and cake will be served by the ladies of the Methodist Church Saturday evening and the band from Essex Junction will furnish music. Mrs. Lena Scudiero, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Curtis, has returned to her home in Canada. The dance held at the school-house hall Monday evening was a success, there being 25 couples present.

RICHMOND.

Miss Smith, who has been the guest of Miss Ruth Hilton the past week, has returned to her home in Colchester. Mrs. and Mrs. Alexander Terrier are in camp at Lake Irons for two weeks. Miss Rose Donawash has returned from a two weeks' vacation spent with her parents in Vergennes and resumed work at the office of Borden Condensed Milk company. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Towne have returned from a week's stay in Shelburne and Milton. Mr. and Mrs. W. Miller are in Randolph for a two weeks' stay. Harold Berry of Derby Line was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Berry, over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bressor of Windsor are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bressor. Mrs. R. R. Bartlett and children of Shelburne are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Towne. Miss Margaret Field of Burlington is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson.

Giving to a marked decrease in business, the Richmond Underwear company will not open its factory until August 30. The members of the fire department were called on a still alarm Monday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock to Mrs. Oliver Crocker Stevens' home on Bank street, where a fire had started in a bedroom. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is thought possible that water on the plate glass skylight might have formed a prism and set fire to some tissue paper in the room. It is considered fortunate that it did not start in the night as the flames spread rapidly, filling most of the room. The fire was extinguished in the night. The damage would be about $100. The condition of Reed Buck, who suffered the fracture of his left arm Saturday afternoon, is very comfortable. Mr. Buck was walking from his home to the day when he stepped aside and then he was turned back into the road. Dr. W. J. Phipps' car was passing and he walked against the side of the car, his left wrist being hit by the rear mud guard. He was carrying a bag of nails in his left hand, otherwise the contact with the car would probably not have been so serious. He has been injured, Dr. Phipps said, and Dr. Phipps, who was with him, brought Mr. Buck to Dr. John Gibson's office in this city and after the fracture had been reduced the injured man was taken to his home.

Westley T. Allen has returned from a trip to San Francisco, Cal., where he attended a conference of the national association of the United States. Mr. Allen, who is a member of the class of 1894 at the University of Vermont, was elected from the Alpha Lambda chapter to the convention. Miss Mabel Starr and Leonard Carr, both of Barre, were married at the home of the bride's brother, R. B. Starr, at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. W. Anthony, pastor of the First Congregational Church. Only members of the immediate families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Carr will reside in Barre.

SHELBURNE.

Stanley Dunham and sister, Miss Helen Dunham, from Huntington, Mass., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tracy, 2nd, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maack, have gone to Williston for a short stay with relatives. T. B. Webster is ill. Mrs. Sarah Maack, who has been spending a month at Lake Willoughby, has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas of New York, who are spending a few days in Burlington, are guests of Prof. Charles Lee Tracy Saturday. John Maack has returned from a trip to New York and Albany.

Mrs. Louise A. Ash, aged 77, died at her residence in Shelburne Falls Saturday morning at 11:45, of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Ash, who was a life resident of this village, was survived by a son, Frank Burbo of Burlington, and a daughter, Mrs. Anna Devoit of Keene, N. H., besides a niece and several grandchildren. The funeral was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the Catholic Church of Charlotte.

Little Miss Dorothy Taylor celebrated her sixth birthday Monday, being given a surprise party by her friends. Ice cream and cake were served. She received some pretty gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Myron Richardson, Miss Ruth Richardson and C. J. Benedict of Littleton, N. H., returned Saturday after spending two days with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Benedict.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kane of Shelburne Farms are parents of a son, John Alexander, born Saturday. Mrs. Harry Weston, who has been ill, is able to be out. Walter K. Murphy is visiting friends in Waterbury. The young people's Bible class met with Miss Mary Fiero on Tuesday evening. There will be a basket dance August 26 at the M. W. A. hall at Shelburne Falls. The funeral of Enos Douglas, Sr., was held at his late home in Shelburne Falls Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Goodman officiating. The deceased was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a highly respected citizen. He was married and resided all his life. He enlisted for service in the Civil War in 1862, serving three years. The bearers were his six grandsons, Walter, Robert and Howard Winterbottom of Burlington, and Leon, Lyman and Devery Devoit of New Haven. He was survived by his children Mrs. Eugene Devoit of New Haven, Mrs. H. H. Winterbottom of Burlington, Miss Mae Douglas and Frank Douglas of Shelburne and Enos Douglas of Burlington.

ESSEX CENTER.

Mr. and Mrs. Fayet McKenzie are in camp at Malletts Falls. Contractor Finn is putting up the floor and the other buildings on the fair grounds. The fair will be held September 22 and 23. Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and children are at Malletts Falls this week. Mrs. Eli Whittier, who has been visiting at Cloverdale, has returned home. Mrs. McAllister, who has been visiting in Waterbury, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. A. Dow are camping at South Hero this week.

UNDERHILL.

Mrs. G. H. Benedict and daughter, Miss Ada, are visiting friends in Manchester. N. H. Miss Rachel Sheldon, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. J. Chase, has returned to her home in Westford. Mrs. Hattie White of Springfield, Mass., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cushing. Miss Frances Lloyd Jones of New Jersey is a visitor at the home of N. J. Glass. Miss Nellie White has been spending the week as the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. B. Howard, who is camping at South Hero. Miss Helena Fitzsimonds, who has been spending the summer at Cliff Haven, N. Y., was called home last week by the death of her uncle, Michael Barrett. Among those who attended the funeral, which was held in Burlington Thursday, were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fitzsimonds and family, P. H. Ryan, T. J. Barrett and Mrs. Frank Barrett. L. D. Moulton and family returned from a camping trip at Malletts Falls Monday. Misses Alice Gile, Eva Terrier, Michael Barrett, and Violet Donawash returned Wednesday, and are staying at Morrisville, Stowe, Waterbury and home by Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fowler, who have been visiting their son, L. C. Fowler, returned to their home in Ludlow. N. J. Glass has his farm stock and tools to J. C. Noll of Swanton. The Knights of Pythias had their dedication services for their new hall Monday night.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

A valuable horse on F. B. Morton's farm on St. Albans road was killed during the severe electrical storm Friday evening. The south end of the barn was partially torn away and the hog pen about the rear of the barn was damaged. The buildings did not catch fire. The damage is estimated at about $500. The horse had just been taken into the barn by Frank Carter, who runs the farm. Mr. Carter was offered $25 for the horse a few days ago. Much grain and corn in this vicinity were lodged by the heavy rainfall. Mrs. Emma C. Walker, aged 55 years, widow of Edward Walker, died Sunday morning about 9:30 o'clock at her home on College street after several months' illness of a complication of diseases, although she had been confined to the bed only a few weeks. She is survived by five children, Mitchell Haley of Swanton and James Haley of this city by a former marriage, and George, Christine and Gordon Walker of this city.

News has been received of the death of Abraham L. Lane, of Richmond, Vt., a brother-in-law of Mrs. W. B. Halbert of the Bay, which occurred Friday from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy. He had many friends in St. Albans. Mr. Lane was born in Philadelphia, N. Y. He was editor of the Richmond Times until about a week ago, when he turned the business over to his son.

Although the particulars regarding the sailing of Dr. A. A. Skeels of this city for England are concealed, it is known that he sailed Thursday from Montreal, having received an appointment from the British government as a surgeon in the royal army medical corps for a term of one year.

The funeral of Edmund Lander, aged 23 years, who died at his home on Pearl street Friday afternoon after a long illness of cancer, was held at Holy Angels' Church Monday morning at nine o'clock. The burial took place in Mount Calvary cemetery. The members of the Church of St. John, N. H., of the Order of Foresters, of which he was a member, attended in body. Mrs. Lander is survived by his wife, one child, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Lander, two brothers, Wilfred and Ferdinand Lander, and two sisters, the Misses Grace and Anna Lander, all of this city. For nine years, or until he was called to go to work, Mr. Lander was employed in the harness shop of Carlisle and Boland.

The members of the fire department were called on a still alarm Monday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock to Mrs. Oliver Crocker Stevens' home on Bank street, where a fire had started in a bedroom. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is thought possible that water on the plate glass skylight might have formed a prism and set fire to some tissue paper in the room. It is considered fortunate that it did not start in the night as the flames spread rapidly, filling most of the room. The fire was extinguished in the night. The damage would be about $100. The condition of Reed Buck, who suffered the fracture of his left arm Saturday afternoon, is very comfortable. Mr. Buck was walking from his home to the day when he stepped aside and then he was turned back into the road. Dr. W. J. Phipps' car was passing and he walked against the side of the car, his left wrist being hit by the rear mud guard. He was carrying a bag of nails in his left hand, otherwise the contact with the car would probably not have been so serious. He has been injured, Dr. Phipps said, and Dr. Phipps, who was with him, brought Mr. Buck to Dr. John Gibson's office in this city and after the fracture had been reduced the injured man was taken to his home.

Westley T. Allen has returned from a trip to San Francisco, Cal., where he attended a conference of the national association of the United States. Mr. Allen, who is a member of the class of 1894 at the University of Vermont, was elected from the Alpha Lambda chapter to the convention. Miss Mabel Starr and Leonard Carr, both of Barre, were married at the home of the bride's brother, R. B. Starr, at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. W. Anthony, pastor of the First Congregational Church. Only members of the immediate families were present. Mr. and Mrs. Carr will reside in Barre.

Stanley Dunham and sister, Miss Helen Dunham, from Huntington, Mass., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tracy, 2nd, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maack, have gone to Williston for a short stay with relatives. T. B. Webster is ill. Mrs. Sarah Maack, who has been spending a month at Lake Willoughby, has returned to her home. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas of New York, who are spending a few days in Burlington, are guests of Prof. Charles Lee Tracy Saturday. John Maack has returned from a trip to New York and Albany.

Mrs. Louise A. Ash, aged 77, died at her residence in Shelburne Falls Saturday morning at 11:45, of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Ash, who was a life resident of this village, was survived by a son, Frank Burbo of Burlington, and a daughter, Mrs. Anna Devoit of Keene, N. H., besides a niece and several grandchildren. The funeral was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the Catholic Church of Charlotte.

Little Miss Dorothy Taylor celebrated her sixth birthday Monday, being given a surprise party by her friends. Ice cream and cake were served. She received some pretty gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Myron Richardson, Miss Ruth Richardson and C. J. Benedict of Littleton, N. H., returned Saturday after spending two days with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Benedict.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kane of Shelburne Farms are parents of a son, John Alexander, born Saturday. Mrs. Harry Weston, who has been ill, is able to be out. Walter K. Murphy is visiting friends in Waterbury. The young people's Bible class met with Miss Mary Fiero on Tuesday evening. There will be a basket dance August 26 at the M. W. A. hall at Shelburne Falls. The funeral of Enos Douglas, Sr., was held at his late home in Shelburne Falls Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Goodman officiating. The deceased was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and was a highly respected citizen. He was married and resided all his life. He enlisted for service in the Civil War in 1862, serving three years. The bearers were his six grandsons, Walter, Robert and Howard Winterbottom of Burlington, and Leon, Lyman and Devery Devoit of New Haven. He was survived by his children Mrs. Eugene Devoit of New Haven, Mrs. H. H. Winterbottom of Burlington, Miss Mae Douglas and Frank Douglas of Shelburne and Enos Douglas of Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fayet McKenzie are in camp at Malletts Falls. Contractor Finn is putting up the floor and the other buildings on the fair grounds. The fair will be held September 22 and 23. Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and children are at Malletts Falls this week. Mrs. Eli Whittier, who has been visiting at Cloverdale, has returned home. Mrs. McAllister, who has been visiting in Waterbury, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. A. Dow are camping at South Hero this week.

Mrs. G. H. Benedict and daughter, Miss Ada, are visiting friends in Manchester. N. H. Miss Rachel Sheldon, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. J. Chase, has returned to her home in Westford. Mrs. Hattie White of Springfield, Mass., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cushing. Miss Frances Lloyd Jones of New Jersey is a visitor at the home of N. J. Glass. Miss Nellie White has been spending the week as the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. B. Howard, who is camping at South Hero. Miss Helena Fitzsimonds, who has been spending the summer at Cliff Haven, N. Y., was called home last week by the death of her uncle, Michael Barrett. Among those who attended the funeral, which was held in Burlington Thursday, were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fitzsimonds and family, P. H. Ryan, T. J. Barrett and Mrs. Frank Barrett. L. D. Moulton and family returned from a camping trip at Malletts Falls Monday. Misses Alice Gile, Eva Terrier, Michael Barrett, and Violet Donawash returned Wednesday, and are staying at Morrisville, Stowe, Waterbury and home by Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fowler, who have been visiting their son, L. C. Fowler, returned to their home in Ludlow. N. J. Glass has his farm stock and tools to J. C. Noll of Swanton. The Knights of Pythias had their dedication services for their new hall Monday night.

A valuable horse on F. B. Morton's farm on St. Albans road was killed during the severe electrical storm Friday evening. The south end of the barn was partially torn away and the hog pen about the rear of the barn was damaged. The buildings did not catch fire. The damage is estimated at about $500. The horse had just been taken into the barn by Frank Carter, who runs the farm. Mr. Carter was offered $25 for the horse a few days ago. Much grain and corn in this vicinity were lodged by the heavy rainfall. Mrs. Emma C. Walker, aged 55 years, widow of Edward Walker, died Sunday morning about 9:30 o'clock at her home on College street after several months' illness of a complication of diseases, although she had been confined to the bed only a few weeks. She is survived by five children, Mitchell Haley of Swanton and James Haley of this city by a former marriage, and George, Christine and Gordon Walker of this city.

News has been received of the death of Abraham L. Lane, of Richmond, Vt., a brother-in-law of Mrs. W. B. Halbert of the Bay, which occurred Friday from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy. He had many friends in St. Albans. Mr. Lane was born in Philadelphia, N. Y. He was editor of the Richmond Times until about a week ago, when he turned the business over to his son.

Although the particulars regarding the sailing of Dr. A. A. Skeels of this city for England are concealed, it is known that he sailed Thursday from Montreal, having received an appointment from the British government as a surgeon in the royal army medical corps for a term of one year.

The funeral of Edmund Lander, aged 23 years, who died at his home on Pearl street Friday afternoon after a long illness of cancer, was held at Holy Angels' Church Monday morning at nine o'clock. The burial took place in Mount Calvary cemetery. The members of the Church of St. John, N. H., of the Order of Foresters, of which he was a member, attended in body. Mrs. Lander is survived by his wife, one child, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Lander, two brothers, Wilfred and Ferdinand Lander, and two sisters, the Misses Grace and Anna Lander, all of this city. For nine years, or until he was called to go to work, Mr. Lander was employed in the harness shop of Carlisle and Boland.

branch of the peace and each was fined $5 and costs which they arranged to pay. In court Tuesday evening Mrs. Pauline Greenwood and her son, John Rave, charged with the larceny of over $100 from Louis Meera of Hurlburt, and who on Monday were bound over for arraignment at the next term of Franklin county court, were discharged. It being decided on further investigation that the evidence was insufficient to convict them.

Joseph Trank died last evening about seven o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Mayo, on Water street after an illness of several months. Mr. Trank is survived by four daughters, Miss Mary Trank, Mrs. Mayo, Mrs. Fred Menard of this city and Mrs. Daryl of Burlington. The funeral will be held at Holy Angels' Church Friday morning. The Rev. L. R. Desrochers officiating.

ENOSBURG FALLS.

Arthur David Lawrence and Ella May Dean, both of Underhill, were married Wednesday August 18 at St. Matthew's church, the Rev. William Varner officiating. They were attended by a brother of the groom and two sisters of the bride.

Mrs. Helen Blake and niece of St. Albans were in town Saturday. Mark N. Dean of Lynn, Mass., was a guest over Sunday of Homer Best. He came here from Montreal, where his business called him. W. H. P. Phipps of Milford, N. H., who had been called to Malone, N. Y., by the illness of his father, was in town Saturday, having stopped off on his way to visit his mother, Mrs. A. G. Good. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wallace returned Friday from Burlington, where Mr. Wallace had been attending the summer school. They left Monday. Mr. Wallace is attending the three days' sessions of the commission on education in Montpelier, where he will join Mr. Wallace in New Hampshire. Mr. Wallace will spend a few days on business. Roger Pratt of Montpelier was a weekend visitor in town. H. Stratton has been having a vacation. His place on rural route four was taken by J. B. Roberts. Enosburg joined the Franklin county fair Saturday, winning a score of 5 to 2. Each day has won a game. The next game will be here Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Seward of Hinesburg were visitors in town Saturday. Major C. S. Shattuck of Hatfield, Mass., who was visiting R. C. Galpin, near Riverside camp, was taken to Richmond Sunday by Dr. Phipps and Dr. J. H. Phipps and passed Sunday at the home of J. H. Phipps. The family of J. H. Phipps, who was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps, K. Phipps moved to St. Albans with Dr. Wallace McMillan, who returned to New York that evening. Dr. McMillan had passed the week at Riverside camp, where he had spoken twice each day. Dr. McMillan has now been forced to leave the camp and will be here for the new season addition in Hinesburg. Dr. McMillan, who has been called to resign his position as member of the First National bank, has been succeeded by Arthur O'Brien of St. Albans. Mr. Kinball, whose health is improving, is much in the open, has accepted a position with the Kinball Brothers & Co. to take charge of the business in Maine. He left here Monday for Portland to enter upon his duties. The Mass. Ethel and Carolyn Galbraith left Saturday morning on their return to their home in Springfield, Mass.

Under the direction of Dr. H. Bailey, superintendent of the water and light department, the street lighting system, being changed, and instead of the car lamps the tungsten lamp will be used. The Rev. A. A. McBride of India was in town recently on his way to visit among his former parishioners at Berkshire Center, where he was married Sunday. Robert, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Galpin, suffered a severe attack of illness Monday, but is now improving. A large force of men were put at work Tuesday changing the sidewalk to accommodate L. E. Marsh's new elevator.

Mrs. Gertrude Lander of Montpelier, who was visiting at her home on College street, was taken to her home on Sunday by Dr. Phipps and Dr. J. H. Phipps and passed Sunday at the home of J. H. Phipps. The family of J. H. Phipps, who was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps, K. Phipps moved to St. Albans with Dr. Wallace McMillan, who returned to New York that evening. Dr. McMillan had passed the week at Riverside camp, where he had spoken twice each day. Dr. McMillan has now been forced to leave the camp and will be here for the new season addition in Hinesburg. Dr. McMillan, who has been called to resign his position as member of the First National bank, has been succeeded by Arthur O'Brien of St. Albans. Mr. Kinball, whose health is improving, is much in the open, has accepted a position with the Kinball Brothers & Co. to take charge of the business in Maine. He left here Monday for Portland to enter upon his duties. The Mass. Ethel and Carolyn Galbraith left Saturday morning on their return to their home in Springfield, Mass.

Under the direction of Dr. H. Bailey, superintendent of the water and light department, the street lighting system, being changed, and instead of the car lamps the tungsten lamp will be used. The Rev. A. A. McBride of India was in town recently on his way to visit among his former parishioners at Berkshire Center, where he was married Sunday. Robert, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Galpin, suffered a severe attack of illness Monday, but is now improving. A large force of men were put at work Tuesday changing the sidewalk to accommodate L. E. Marsh's new elevator.

Mrs. Gertrude Lander of Montpelier, who was visiting at her home on College street, was taken to her home on Sunday by Dr. Phipps and Dr. J. H. Phipps and passed Sunday at the home of J. H. Phipps. The family of J. H. Phipps, who was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps, K. Phipps moved to St. Albans with Dr. Wallace McMillan, who returned to New York that evening. Dr. McMillan had passed the week at Riverside camp, where he had spoken twice each day. Dr. McMillan has now been forced to leave the camp and will be here for the new season addition in Hinesburg. Dr. McMillan, who has been called to resign his position as member of the First National bank, has been succeeded by Arthur O'Brien of St. Albans. Mr. Kinball, whose health is improving, is much in the open, has accepted a position with the Kinball Brothers & Co. to take charge of the business in Maine. He left here Monday for Portland to enter upon his duties. The Mass. Ethel and Carolyn Galbraith left Saturday morning on their return to their home in Springfield, Mass.

Under the direction of Dr. H. Bailey, superintendent of the water and light department, the street lighting system, being changed, and instead of the car lamps the tungsten lamp will be used. The Rev. A. A. McBride of India was in town recently on his way to visit among his former parishioners at Berkshire Center, where he was married Sunday. Robert, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Galpin, suffered a severe attack of illness Monday, but is now improving. A large force of men were put at work Tuesday changing the sidewalk to accommodate L. E. Marsh's new elevator.

Mrs. Gertrude Lander of Montpelier, who was visiting at her home on College street, was taken to her home on Sunday by Dr. Phipps and Dr. J. H. Phipps and passed Sunday at the home of J. H. Phipps. The family of J. H. Phipps, who was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps, K. Phipps moved to St. Albans with Dr. Wallace McMillan, who returned to New York that evening. Dr. McMillan had passed the week at Riverside camp, where he had spoken twice each day. Dr. McMill